

International Society for the Study of Trauma and Dissociation

Offered in Langley, BC
Register Now

BROOKSWOOD COUNSELLING

Assessment and Treatment of Traumatized Children and Adolescents with Complex Trauma/Dissociative Symptoms

Instructor:

Sandra Wieland, Ph.D.
Clinical & Consultant
Psychologist

Centre for Counselling & Therapy
www.sandrawieland.com

Meeting Frequency:

Four Fridays: March 26, May 7, May 28, June 18, 2010

Time: 9:30 AM -4:30 PM

Intended Participants:

Licensed mental health professionals treating children and adolescents with trauma histories; limited openings to educators and program supervisors in the field of childhood trauma

Where :

Brookwood Counselling Services
#101 20103 40th Avenue
Langley, B.C.
V3A 2W3

Cost:

$385 US + $40 Can for ISSTD mem
$435 US + $40 Can for non-memb $385 US + $40 Can for individuals of a group of 3 from 1 agency or Brookwood Staff

Call:

Sandra Wieland
Ph.D., R.Psych. at 250-380-9924 or email at sandrawieland@shaw.ca
to reserve your spot.

22.5 Hours of CEUs
available

Utilizing cutting edge clinical developments and research from this course you will:

- Understand the connection between trauma and childhood symptoms
- Learn how trauma affects the developing brain
- Recognize dissociative symptoms with current assessment tools
- Learn techniques to stabilize children/adolescents with dysregulated affect and disturbing behaviors
- Learn to resolve attachment dilemmas in traumatized children
- Learn techniques to manage self-injury, trance states, rage reactions, sexual acting out,
- Learn how to work with the family system
- Learn how to interface with school, health care and the legal systems.
See www.isst-d.org – training – or www.sandrawieland.com for information

Sandra Wieland, Ph.D., R.Psych. Certified Play Therapist (Supervisory Status) is a director of the International Society for the Study of Trauma-Dissociation and co-chair of the Child & Adolescent Committee. She has written two books on working with children who have been sexually abused, is presently editing a book on dissociation in children & adolescents and has written numerous articles related to working with traumatized children. She has conducted extensive training programs on four continents and maintains a private practice in Victoria, B.C. She provides consultation for several programs for children and adolescents who have been traumatized and works closely with the Ministry for Children & Family Development.

Register Now – Participants limited to 15